13th Sunday in Ordinary Time—June 27, 2021

Because of sin, sickness and death have entered the world, but are overcome through the resurrection of Jesus. He hears the cry of those in need, healing the sick and raising the dead to life. He made himself poor that we might become rich.

MASS SCHEDULE • Saturday 4 pm, Sunday 8 am, 9:45 am (en Español), 11:30 am

Weekdays: Wednesday & Friday 8:30 am • Holy Days: 8:30 am, 12:10 pm, 6 pm

NEW PARISHIONERS: Our warmest welcome. To register, please call the office to request a registration form.

HOSPITAL & NURSING HOME VISITATION WITH COMMUNION: Please notify the office if you require an extended stay.

MISSION STATEMENT: United by our faith as disciples of our Lord, we come together to be the light of Christ to each other and our greater community as we also celebrate our diverse heritages.

Starting the weekend of July 3rd and 4th, we'll be reinstating the pre-Covid security procedures of having doors unlocked for easy entrance before the Masses. Once Mass begins the ushers will be locking all entrances and the only access will be via the electronic door at the handicapped ramp. Press the button where indicated to let the ushers know you've arrived and they'll buzz you in.

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE—The healing of the woman and the child in today's Gospel is a reminder we are all wounded. We retreat to those we love looking for acceptance, listening, understanding and support. Families must be healing communities where Jesus is present in our care for one another.

Our deepest sympathy & remember in your prayers Serafino Piermarini,
Evelyn Frances Haren & all the deceased of our parish.

Welcoming God, receive from our hands the loved ones we return to you. We pray to the Lord. Amen.

Dear Parish Family,

It was very good to see all the people who returned home for the Feast Day Mass under the tent, and to celebrate with Fr. Tom Bishop his 50th plus Anniversary to the priesthood on the Feast of St. Anthony of Padua. It was a promising sign as we make our way out of the pandemic. It was also good to see more at Mass last weekend as we are three weeks into the removal of bishop's dispensation and the Covid restrictions. We are working out of the Covid procedures of entering and attending Mass to opening all the entry ways into the church building, but still observing the safety measures that were established well before the pandemic.

With more people returning to the Mass, we need to bring back more ushers and greeters and extraordinary ministers of the Eucharist. That will mean asking for more people to consider participating in these ministries. Not all of our former ministers are able to return, and we will need to have some parish training sessions to form the new volunteers and give a refresher course to our current ministers. It would be great if you might consider serving our parish community in these liturgical ministries.

The summer is now well under way and I am guessing many people are going to be taking much needed vacations. Wishing everyone a safe and enjoyable summertime. Please keep us in your prayers as we have many things to plan and work out on our way back to a new normal. Maybe you can pray and reflect on how you could be a part of it. And remember that normal is just the average, and God calls us to be more than just average.

Your brother in Christ,
Fr. Tom

Congratulation to Fr. Brian Smith and Fr. Chad Johnson!

Bereavement Team

Are you looking for a way to give back to the parish community? We are looking to add volunteers to help with Bereavement Team. Typically it is about a 4 hour commitment on a weekday or Saturday afternoon. Our volunteers set up the hall for funeral luncheons, they serve the meal and clean up the hall after the luncheon has ended. If you would like to volunteer please contact Roberta in the office, 330-452-9539.

Birthday Card Service Project

Parents, as some of you may have heard throughout the school year our children in CCD made birthday cards each Sunday to send to our parishioners. We had many positives come out of this project this year! If any families are looking for something to do and would like to help continue this project throughout the summer months please contact Maggie. We can provide some needed materials and directions. What a wonderful way to brighten someone's day while feeling good yourself!

St. Anthony/ All Saints will once again be participating in the neighborhood collection of peanut butter, jelly and mac n cheese cups for less fortunate kids in our area. Items may be dropped off near the shrine candles outside of the church. More information will be available next week!

Worship Aid for June 26—27

Things to note during restrictions due to Covid:

- A simple procession will be observed at the beginning of Mass, so that the ministers and servers may observe appropriate social distancing protocols. You will notice fewer altar servers for this same reason.
- Per the Diocese of Youngstown, reception of the Precious Blood from the Chalice is suspended.
- Holy Communion will be received by hand, not by mouth. Please wait for the usher to release you from the pew, maintain 6 feet of space and wear your mask until you reach the altar. At that time pull your mask down, hold out your hands, receive the Host and replace your mask.
- Please take this bulletin with you! Do not leave it in the pews. We will then sanitize before the next Mass.

Thank you for helping to keep us all safe!

Prayer for the Bishop's Appeal

Loving and gracious God, you gave us your Son, Jesus Christ. He gave of himself, not only on the cross, but in every moment of his life. Jesus saw the hungry; he fed them. Jesus saw the lame; he cured them. Jesus saw the sick; he healed them. Jesus saw the discouraged; he encouraged them. Jesus saw the dying; he gave them new life. Jesus gave. In this way, he taught us to give. Loving and gracious God, open our hearts to the many ministries offered throughout our Diocesan Church. Strengthen our resolve to be like your Son, Jesus Christ, to give of ourselves in every moment of our lives. Amen.

Opening Hymn: Sing, O Sing

Sing, O sing, like the wind and sea; let music fill the skies! Lift your voice like the thund'ring waves: let songs of praise arise! Praise God with drums and dancing! Praise God with flute and horn! Blessed be our God, Mighty Lord of all!

Night and day we announce your praise, O Lord of ev'ry land, give you thanks for the sun and stars, all blessings of your hand. Helper of all who labor, Comfort to all who mourn. Praise to you, O God, Mighty Lord of all!

Mighty master of raging storm, we kneel before your pow'r. Loving Lord of the faithful rain that makes the desert flow'r. Giver of song and sorrow, Grower of ev'ry seed. Praise to you, O God, Mighty Lord of all!

First Reading Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24 (98B)
A reading from the Book of Wisdom

God did not make death, nor does he rejoice in the destruction of the living. For he fashioned all things that they might have being; and the creatures of the world are wholesome, and there is not a destructive drug among them nor any domain of the netherworld on earth, for justice is undying. For God formed man to be imperishable; the image of his own nature he made him. But by the envy of the devil, death entered the world, and they who belong to his company experience it.

Responsorial Psalm: Ps. 30:2, 4, 5-6, 11, 12, 13
I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

Second Reading 2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15
A reading from the 2nd Letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians

Brothers and sisters: As you excel in every respect, in faith, discourse, knowledge, all earnestness, and in the love we have for you, may you excel in this gracious act also. For you know the gracious act of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, for your sake he became poor, so that by his poverty you might become rich. Not that others should have relief while you are burdened, but that as a matter of equality your abundance at the present time should supply their needs, so that their abundance may also supply your needs, that there may be equality. As it is written: Whoever had much did not have more, and whoever had little did not have less.

Gospel Mark 5:21-43 or 5:21-24, 35b-43
A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

Profession of Faith

Nicene Creed

I believe in one God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible. I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man. For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets. I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins, and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Presentation of Gifts: Prayer of St. Francis

Make me a channel of your peace. Where there is hatred, let me bring your love. Where there is injury, your pardon, Lord, and where there's doubt, true faith in you.

Make me a channel of your peace. Where there's despair in life, let me bring hope. Where there is darkness only light, And where there's sadness ever joy.

Presentation of Gifts:

Prayer of St. Francis (con't)

O Master, grant that I may never seek so much to be consoled, as to console, to be understood as to understand, to be loved, as to love, with all my soul.

Make me a channel of your peace. It is in pardoning that we are pardoned, in giving of ourselves that we receive, and in dying that we're born to eternal life.

Communion Hymn:

I Know That My Redeemer Lives

Verse:

I know that my Redeemer lives, the One who calls me home. I long to see God face-to-face, to see with my own eyes. (Refrain)

Refrain:

I know that my redeemer lives, that I shall rise again. (Verses)

Verses:

I know that I shall one day see the goodness of the Lord, when God will wipe away our tears, and death will be no more. (Refrain)

The last day I shall rise again, shall be remade like God. My home shall be by God's own side, the dying, rising Lord. (Refrain)

Meditation Hymn: These Alone Are Enough

Take my heart, O Lord, take my hopes and dreams. Take my mind with all its plans and schemes. Give me nothing more than your love and grace. These alone, O God, are enough for me.

Take my thoughts, O Lord, and my memory. Take my tears, my joys, my liberty. Give me nothing more than your love and grace. These alone, O God, are enough for me.

Closing Hymn: Let There Be Peace On Earth

Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me. Let there be peace on earth, the peace that was meant to be. With God as our Father, brothers all are we; let me walk with my brother in perfect harmony.

Let peace begin with me, let this be the moment now. With ev'ry step I take, let this be my solemn vow: To take each moment and live each moment in peace eternally. Let there be peace on earth and let it begin with me.
